Effectiveness of Gemstones

Human body is the essence of five natural elements (Earth, Water, Fire, Space, Wind), which is why planetary positions have a direct influence on our body and soul. According to Astrologers, we experience difficulties in life due to the inauspicious position of planets in our birth-charts. In ancient times, Astrologers did research and found remedies to reduce the influence of malefic planets. "Gemstones" is one of the remedies to reduce such malefic influence.

Gemstones are not just some shining stones, but they also have miraculous powers. Each gem is associated with a different planet and has unique qualities. In other words it has the capacity to absorb energy from the planet it is related to. This is the main reason behind wearing a particular gemstone after consulting an astrologer and Gemologist.

Gemstones absorb positive energy from planets and transfer it to human body. This energy forms compatibility in all five elements of body, which improves the health of a person. You will have an optimistic attitude towards life due to a healthy soul and body. You will overcome all the troubles in life and enjoy happiness in your family. You will also get the support of people when you need it most. Sapphire increases your inclination towards your duties and you will get rewards for your efforts. You will also get respect in the society.

These stones are called gemstones due to their miraculous qualities. But you should wear an apt gemstone according to your Moon-sign, as inappropriate gemstone may increase inauspicious results. So, consult a specialist before wearing a gemstone and wear it during the right period.
